High above the clouds, where celestial ships sailed between sky islands, an ancient order of Cloudweavers practiced the art of sky-shaping. Using enchanted looms, they wove skies into tapestries that told the stories of the skies. Each sky island bore a narrative, and the weavers, guided by celestial constellations, continued to thread the celestial tales that adorned the firmament.

Sam awoke with a scream, his body drenched in moisture. The same unsettling nightmare had once again tormented his sleep, the one where he was chased by a ominous figure wielding a blade. He glanced at the clock; it was 3:15 am. He tried to placate his thundering heart, attempting to convince himself that it was merely a figment of his imagination. Yet, deep down, he knew it was far more than that. He knew the enigmatic figure was tangible, and it was closing in towards him. He had seen it before, in the frightening news reports, in the meticulous police sketches, in the haunted faces of the victims. It was the notorious serial killer that had been haunting the city for what seemed like an eternity. And Sam was his next target.
