Destination Brands

2012-05-23 Nigel Morgan This textbook shows how cities, regions and countries adopt branding strategies similar to those of leading household brand names in an effort to differentiate themselves and emotionally connect with potential tourists. It asks whether tourist destinations get the reputations they deserve and uses topical case studies to discuss brand concepts and challenges. It tackles how place perceptions are formed, how cities, regions and countries can enhance their reputations as creative, competitive destinations, and the link between competitive identity and strategic tourism policy making.

Strategic Event Creation

2014-09-30 Liz Sharples The first text to move away from an older paradigm of simply 'making events work' and managing inputs, to show how to manage a sector that now needs to be: outcome obsessed, stakeholder centric, strategically focused and driven by strategically aware reflective professionals.

Sustainable Marketing of Cultural and Heritage Tourism

2010-04-19 Deepak Chhabra Cultural attractions play an important role in tourism at all levels, and attract huge numbers of tourists interested in heritage and the arts. Cultural Heritage Tourism has positive economic and social impacts but can also have negative impacts on communities and regions. This book draws together and links ideas of tourism from sustainable marketing perspectives and embeds it within a heritage management setting. Through a discussion and analysis of existing literature and practices this book aims to propose a marketing strategy framework grounded in sustainable principles that can be used to sustain and preserve the authenticity of cultural heritage for future generations, whilst appealing to the suppliers, the regulators, and the consumers. The book first explains the dynamics of cultural heritage with its authenticity underpinnings, marketing, and tourism, and proposes a strategic praxis drawn from core sustainable principles. This is followed by a pragmatic examination of the proposed framework from the shaper's (provider's) perspective. The material presented in this book is not merely an agglomeration of documented secondary research, but the theoretical concepts are grounded in empirical research and interactive discussions with students and the travel and tourism industry. A variety of heritage institutions across the globe are used as starting points to test the applicability of the proposed paradigm: these include museums, historic house museums, heritage hotels/resorts, festivals, and heritage merchandize. This is a timely offering to a growing and vibrant area of research; what is most pertinent is that it is a thorough and fresh take on the topic with primary research included. It will find a place in student materials for a variety of courses and it should be read by practicing academics and researchers.

BSAVA Manual of Canine and Feline Head, Neck and Thoracic Surgery

2005-11-18 Daniel J. Brockman This brand new Manual focuses on soft tissue surgery of the head, neck and thorax. Together with its companion volume, the BSAVA Manual of Canine and Feline Abdominal Surgery, it highlights for the veterinary surgeon in general practice the most commonly performed techniques. Procedures that are undertaken by those surgeons with more experience are also discussed so that practitioners can better inform their clients as to clinical options. The Manual begins with a consideration of general patient assessment and stabilization, anaesthesia and analgesia, and postoperative care for surgical conditions of the head, neck and thorax. An illustrated description of surgical instruments and materials follows. Chapters on different organs/systems consider relevant anatomy, clinical signs and diagnostics, and medical treatment in addition to surgical techniques. Emergency management of respiratory distress is described, including instructions on how to perform an emergency tracheostomy. Surgical approaches to the thoracic wall and drainage of the thoracic cavity are described in detail and illustrated. Step-by-step Operative Techniques detail the common procedures in an easy-to-follow practical way, with notes on patient positioning and preparation, instrumentation and postoperative care. Full-colour photographs and specially commissioned drawings illustrate both the Operative Techniques and the accompanying text. Surgical diseases of the head, neck and thorax are considered a challenge by many surgeons. This Manual, written by an international panel of authors, serves to demystify common techniques and provide a

Values-based Service for Sustainable Business

2008-10-31 Bo Edvardsson The role of values in developing and managing service companies has been under researched in the existing literature - until now. This book analyzes a large organization (IKEA) as a basis for values based service for sustainable business. The authors provide an overview of the history of IKEA and the social and environmental perspectives that have acted as driving forces for creating economic value. They go on to develop values-based service thinking within the areas of service experience, service brand, and service leadership. The book concludes by comparing IKEA to other values-based service companies (such as Starbucks, H&M, and Body Shop); from these reflections, the book presents the key principles for a sustainable, values-based service business.

Agile Procurement

2017-09-19 Bernardo Nicoletti This book is the second of two volumes presenting a business model to add value through Procurement. Including several case studies of successful implementation, it demonstrates how the increasing complexity of the business environment requires a significant intervention on the management of processes and information within individual organizations and through inter-company relations. Agile Procurement presents the application of the Agile method which optimizes and digitizes processes in order to reduce wastage and defects. As a method, tool and a culture aimed at effectiveness, efficiency and economy of organizations, Agile Procurement requires a change of paradigm. This volume examines these areas of improvement and presents best practice in the digitization of the processes. The last chapter examines the near future developments of the procurement, which the author labels Procurement 4.0. It presents also how new solutions, like Blockchain, could revolutionize procurement.

Management and Change in Africa

2004-07-31 Terence Jackson Arising from a research project funded by Danish International Development Assistance, Management and Change in Africa includes results of management surveys across 15 sub-Saharan countries and of organizational surveys taken across a range of sectors in South Africa, Kenya, Nigeria and Cameroon. It combines methodology, theory and case examples to explore thoroughly the influences on management in Africa and attempts to push the boundaries of cross-cultural theory. In doing so, it explores how much can be learned from studying both the successes and failures of African management towards realizing the potential of an African Renaissance and what the global community may learn from Africa.

The Peabody Picture Vocabulary Test 4th Edition (PPVT-4) is a highly regarded vocabulary test that has been in operation for close to 50 years. Created by Lloyd M. Dunn and Douglas M. Dunn, the test is crafted to assess vocabulary comprehension for American English. It is swift and simple to conduct, saving valuable time so that attention can be put on executing successful interventions.

The PPVT-4 assessment subject matter encompasses a extensive range of vocabulary comprehension ranks, spanning from pre-kindergarten through adulthood. The test problems widely sample words that depict 20 subject domains (e.g., actions, vegetables, tools), parts of speech (nouns, verbs, attributes), and household and school vocabulary.

The test gives two identical editions which hold distinct vocabulary terms, guaranteeing that the person has not “mastered” the assessment. One edition can be utilized before intervention implementation to measure test-takers' vocabulary understanding and the second version can be used for re-testing to assess and note improvement. The PPVT-4 also features a unique Growth Scale Value (GSV) which is sensitive to small changes over time.

Life Lessons from proposal kegiatan outbond sdocuments2 pdf—Mystery of the Missing Diamond

It was a shadowy and tempestuous night. The downpour was pouring down, and the breeze was howling. In the center of the town, there was a gallery, where a priceless diamond was on exhibit. The diamond was called the Star of Africa, and it was the largest and most beautiful diamond in the earth. It was guarded by a advanced security system, and a group of armed guards. No one could steal it, or so they believed. But somebody did. Someone succeeded to bypass the protection, to elude the sentinels, to smash the window, and to take the diamond. And no one observed them, no one heard them, no one knew who they were. They exited no sign, no clue, no proof. They faded into the night, with the African Star. And the mystery of the missing diamond commenced.
