Mystery of the Missing Diamond

It was a shadowy and stormy night. The rain was pouring down, and the wind was whistling. In the heart of the city, there was a gallery, where a priceless diamond was on exhibit. The diamond was known as the African Star, and it was the largest and most beautiful diamond in the globe. It was protected by a high-tech security system, and a team of weaponized guards. No one could rob it, or so they thought. But an individual did. An individual managed to circumvent the security, to elude the guards, to break the window, and to steal the diamond. And no one observed them, no one listened to them, no one identified who they were. They left no trace, no clue, no testimony. They faded into the darkness, with the Star of Africa. And the mystery of the lost diamond began.

The authors argue that notwithstanding its at times aimless appearance and ostensibly unstructured material, casual conversation is a highly structured activity and has a vital role in the social construction of reality. The work works through authentic instances of casual conversations involving participants varying in age, gender, ethnicity, and socio-economic class<sup>12</sup>. Deriving on perspectives from sociology, linguistics, and critical semiotics, the book equips readers with the examinative skills to describe the strata of structure and critical interpretive structures to clarify the ‘social work’ that goes on through chat.
