The writers assert that notwithstanding its occasionally aimless seeming and seemingly unstructured substance, casual conversation is a extremely structured activity and has a critical part in the social construction of reality. The work goes through real samples of casual conversations involving participants varying in age, gender, ethnicity, and socio-economic class<sup>12</sup>. Drawing on perspectives from sociology, linguistics, and critical semiotics, the book equips readers with the analytical skills to describe the levels of structure and critical interpretive frameworks to elucidate the 'social work' that goes on through chat.
