He was tired of his life. He was dull, depressed, and discontented. He had a work he detested, a manager he loathed, and a significant other he didn't love. He had no passion, no purpose, no significance. He sensed like he was misusing his hours, his potential, his life. He desired to alter, he wanted to flee, he wanted to exist. He didn't realize where he was going, he didn't know what he was doing, he didn't understand what he was searching for. He only knew that he had to leave, that he had to investigate, that he had to discover. He set out on a voyage of a thousand kilometers, a voyage of excitement, of difficulty, of education, of progress, of alteration.
