Forensic Investigator

2009-08-03 Esther McKay FORENSIC INVESTIGATOR Geoff Bernasconi had always been passionate about his job as a policeman in rural New South Wales and, from the earliest days of his career, went the extra mile, both for victims of crime and for their families. But one night in 1984, he was called to investigate the scene of an horrific car accident in which an entire family had been wiped out – and which it was impossible for him to forget. Geoff's day-to-day working life became a catalogue of tragedies, some of which involved people close to him, and he found himself spiralling downwards in the grip of post-traumatic stress disorder. When Esther McKay, fellow forensic investigator and author of the best-selling Crime Scene, heard that Geoff has been awarded maximum compensation for his suffering, she knew immediately this was a story that needed to be told. This is a harrowing account of what it is like to work on the front-line of crime and tragedy as a forensic investigator. But it is also the inspiring story of someone who has been exposed to sights and experiences many of us can hardly even imagine, yet has emerged from the darkness to begin his journey to recovery.

Varieties of Religious Authority

2010 Azyumardi Azra The twentieth century was a fascinating period of profound political, social and economic changes in Indonesia. These changes contributed to the diversification of the religious landscape and as a result, religious authority was redistributed over an increasing number of actors. Although many Muslims in Indonesia continued to regard the ulama, the traditional religious scholars, as the principle source of religious guidance, religious authority has become more diffused and differentiated over...

First Love that Never Fades

Anna could never erase from memory her first love, Leo. Their paths had crossed when they were both 16, at a magical summer camp. They were drawn to each other like magnets, spending every day sharing laughter, exchanging heartfelt thoughts, and experiencing the thrill of first love. Their bond was unbreakable, and they vowed to maintain their bond, to remain faithful, and to never let their love fade. But life, as it often does, had different plans in store for them. They lost contact, they moved on with their lives, and they eventually married other people. Years passed, and the whirlwind of life took them in different directions. But fate, it seems, had not forgotten their unbreakable connection. At a chance encounter, at a nostalgic reunion, their paths crossed once again. The moment they laid eyes on each other, the flame of their first love rekindled. The same magnetic pull that had drawn them together years ago was still potent. They felt the same joy that had fueled their teenage romance, but they also felt the reality of their present. Their emotions swirled for the unwavering devotion they had shared, but their minds grappled with the complexity of their current lives. They were caught in a tug-of-war, torn between the passion of their past and the comfort and familiarity of their present. They stood at a defining moment, forced to make a difficult choice. Would they choose the magnetic pull of their first love, risking the unknown that lay ahead, or would they hold onto the predictability of their current lives, forever wondering what could have been? Only time would tell if their unwavering connection would survive the test of time.
