The Mystery of the Missing Diamond

It was a dark and stormy night. The drizzle was pouring down, and the gale was whistling. In the center of the town, there was a museum, where a priceless diamond was on exhibit. The diamond was named the African Star, and it was the greatest and most stunning diamond in the world. It was secured by a advanced security system, and a group of armed guards. No one could steal it, or so they assumed. But someone did. Somebody succeeded to circumvent the protection, to elude the guards, to shatter the window, and to take the diamond. And no one observed them, no one overheard them, no one identified who they were. They exited no trace, no hint, no proof. They disappeared into the darkness, with the Star of Africa. And the riddle of the missing diamond began.
