Journey of a Thousand Miles

He was tired of his life. He was uninterested, depressed, and discontented. He had a job he despised, a manager he despised, and a significant other he didn't love. He had no zeal, no aim, no value. He sensed like he was misusing his moment, his possibility, his existence. He desired to change, he wished to flee, he wished to live. He chose to leave his job, to end things with his girlfriend, to get rid of his stuff, and to buy a one-way ticket to the other side of the earth. He didn't understand where he was proceeding, he didn't understand what he was performing, he didn't know what he was searching for. He only realized that he had to depart, that he had to discover, that he had to discover. He set out on a journey of a thousand miles, a journey of excitement, of challenge, of education, of growth, of alteration.

It was the time 23, and the world was on the verge of war. The USA and China, the pair of world powers, had been entangled in a ferocious contest, competing for assets, influence, and supremacy. They had engineered sophisticated weapons, such as laser weapons, drones, and spacecrafts, that could hit any place, any moment. They had also secretly built orbital stations, which can launch nuclear missiles, which could destroy the planet. They were ready to employ them, if ever needed. But they were the only ones. There was a 3rd entity, a secret entity, which had been watching them, waiting patiently for them, getting ready for them both. They were the extraterrestrials, and they had come arrived to halt them both. They had come to rescue the world, or to finish it. They had come to begin the galactic wars which changed past.
