2. Conduct Comprehensive Study: Investigate various sources, such as articles, books, and scholarly journals, to collect information.
3. Plan Your Structure: Start with an intro that grabs the reader's interest and states your argument – what your paper will argue. After that, plan what each of your body paragraphs will discuss. Be certain to add information from various sources.

The work goes through genuine instances of casual conversations entailing participants differing in age, gender, ethnicity, and socio-economic class<sup>12</sup>. Drawing on insights from sociology, linguistics, and critical semiotics, the book provides readers with the analytic skills to depict the layers of structure and critical interpretive models to clarify the 'social work' that happens on through chat.
