He was tired of his living. He was bored, depressed, and unfulfilled. He had a work he hated, a boss he abhorred, and a significant other he didn’t cherish. He had no enthusiasm, no goal, no significance. He believed like he was squandering his time, his capability, his life. He desired to change, he wanted to run away, he desired to exist. He decided to resign from his employment, to end things with his partner, to get rid of his stuff, and to buy a direct ticket to the opposite end of the globe. He didn’t realize where he was heading, he didn’t realize what he was doing, he didn’t realize what he was looking for. He only understood that he had to depart, that he had to discover, that he had to find out. He started on a journey of a thousand kilometers, a journey of thrill, of difficulty, of education, of growth, of transformation.

Anna could never forget her first love, Leo. Their paths had crossed when they were both 16, at a magical summer camp. They were utterly smitten, spending every day exchanging lighthearted banter, engaging in deep conversations, and sharing stolen kisses. Their bond was solid, and they vowed to maintain their bond, to remain faithful, and to love each other forever. But life, as it often does, had a different path in store for them. They lost track of each other, they moved on with their lives, and they eventually married other people. Years passed, and the whirlwind of life took them in different directions. But fate, it seems, had not forgotten their undeniable connection. At a chance encounter, at a nostalgic reunion, their paths crossed once again. The moment they laid eyes on each other, the flame of their first love rekindled. The same electric spark that had drawn them together years ago was still potent. They felt the same excitement that had fueled their teenage romance, but they also felt the burden of their past. Their souls ached for the deep connection they had shared, but their minds grappled with the challenges of their current lives. They were caught in an emotional battle, torn between the alluring memories of their first love and the stability and security of their present. They stood at a defining moment, forced to make a heartbreaking choice. Would they choose the all-consuming passion of their first love, risking the unknown that lay ahead, or would they hold onto the security of their current lives, forever wondering what could have been? Only time would tell if their unbreakable bond would overcome the challenges.
