It was the time 2023, and the earth was at the edge of conflict. The United States and PRC, the two superpowers, had been locked in a intense contest, contending for assets, power, and control. They had both developed sophisticated armaments, such as lasers, drones, and orbiters, which could attack anywhere, any moment. They had also clandestinely constructed space stations, that can fire atomic weapons, that can annihilate the world. They were prepared to utilize these weapons, if ever needed. But they were the only ones. There was a 3rd power, a concealed entity, which had been watching them, waiting patiently for them both, getting ready for them both. They were aliens, and they had arrived to halt them both. They had come to save the world, or to terminate it. They had come to begin the space wars that transformed past.

A term paper is a scholarly paper written by students over an academic term, accounting for a large part of a grade. It's an essential component of your college education, often assigned towards the conclusion of a semester. The paper is a vehicle through which educators gauge your comprehension of the course content. Writing a term paper isn't just about summarizing facts. It requires a blend of organization, deep research, and the art of presenting your findings in a way that's both clear and analytical. This means structuring your arguments logically, citing relevant sources, and critically evaluating the information you've gathered. When grading a term paper, there are three important aspects to consider. First, the paper should be passionately written and captivating to read. Second, it should have good grammar and style (following MLA, APA, or CMS style). Third, it should be well documented with in-text references (in parentheses) linking their assertions to scholarly articles in the list of references at the end of the paper.
