Writing a synthesis paper requires pulling together information from various sources to present a well-rounded debate on a topic. Here are the stages to write a perfect structure for a synthesis paper:

1. Select a Relevant Subject: Choose a topic that aligns with your hobbies and the task requirements.
2. Carry out Comprehensive Study: Explore different sources, including articles, books, and scholarly journals, to gather data.
3. Plan Your Structure: Begin with an intro that grabs the readers interest and presents your thesis – what your paper will argue. After that, outline what each of your body paragraphs will discuss. Be certain to include details from different sources.
4. Compose Paragraphs with Topic Lines: Devote each section to a unique sub-topic or source. Begin with a clear topic sentence directly related to your argument. Present the source you're combining and outline its key points. Back up your claims with proof from the source, employing quotes, paraphrases, or summaries.
5. Revise, Correct, and Check: Check your work for any mistakes or inconsistencies.

He was weary of his living. He was dull, sad, and discontented. He had a work he hated, a manager he abhorred, and a girlfriend he didn't love. He had no enthusiasm, no purpose, no significance. He felt like he was squandering his hours, his capability, his being. He wanted to modify, he wished to run away, he wished to survive. He resolved to leave his employment, to end things with his significant other, to sell his belongings, and to acquire a direct pass to the far end of the world. He didn't understand where he was going, he didn't know what he was performing, he didn't realize what he was seeking. He only understood that he had to go, that he had to discover, that he had to discover. He set out on a journey of a thousand miles, a trip of adventure, of difficulty, of learning, of development, of transformation.
