Kufotokoza Nkhani Kevin Olson 2022 From Creation to Christ is a curriculum providing an in depth study of the Bible. This study is a selection of 42 narrative stories broken into three sections and is intended to be used over the course of a year long study of the Bible. Using an Oral Bible Study method, the curriculum is designed to bridge cultural and literacy barriers while providing a solid theological education. Term 1-Creation through Exodus Term 2- Promised Land through the Prophets Term 3-Life of Jesus Each lesson focuses on one Bible story, with questions for discussion and application as well as related verses for further study. It serves as a template for a Christ-centered discipleship through a method resembling the parables and Benjamin Kisoni 2012-12-04 Benjamin Kisoni was young, gifted, university educated and confident that he would make his mark as a Christian leader in the Democratic Republic of the Congo. But civil war robbed him and his wife and children of all they possessed. On returning to their home town, they found that living by Christian principles brought them abuse rather than praise. When they eventually managed to struggle to their feet, they were brought down again by the assassination of Benjamin's younger brother, the struggle for justice, and the growing awareness that Benjamin too was a marked man. For the safety of his family, he had to flee the DRC and see refugee status in the USA. A devoted believer, he brought each situation to the Lord, sometimes in grief, sometimes in anger. In this book he recounts what he learnt about God and himself

Earliest Christianity Martin Hengel 1986 This volume brings together two important historical studies by Professor Hengel, Acts and the History of Earliest Christianity, and Property and Riches in the Early Church. Together they give a vivid and clearly written picture of life and values in the first days of Christianity.

'Remarkably easy reading and well within the reach of those who are shy of works of scholarship' (Expository Times). Martin Hengel was Professor of New Testament and Early Judaism in the University of Tubingen.

the organ was introduced by church member and ethnomusicologist, Bongani Mthethwa, to accompany the Shembe hymnal repertory. The initiative gave birth to dozens of youth choirs who sang the hymns in a new style, and began to compose their own repertory about Shembe in a more 'gospel-inflected' musical version of their faith. --

MgxeKwa were an elderly Xhosa couple (late fifties) that often worked out of town as farmers but resided in the rural village called Cofimvaba at the Eastern Cape in South Africa. They worked as farmers for a long time and they both had no educational background, but they were well mannered and lived in harmony with other community members. In that old age Mrs. Mxgekwa bore a baby girl, which was a surprise to many as no one including her husband was aware that she was pregnant. The child was genetically different from her family; hence she was named Nobomvu, meaning the red one. She was literally a white child, in the black family. The non resemblance of Nobomvu and her genetic indifference brought about a lot of unanswerable questions that resulted to confusion and tension with relatives and within the community. The story of Nobomvu Mxgekwa- is Christian fiction that is inspired by true life stories. The contents of the story consist of parables that portray

Knowing who you are in Christ Natasha Nanyangwe 2021-11-30 If you are looking for answers as to the reason for your existence, or if you are a newly born-again Christian seeking to understand who you have become and the family that you have joined, then this is the book for you. So many people who call themselves Christians start questioning themselves whether being a Christian is all that it is cut out to be, simply because they have never taken the time to know who they really are in Christ. Knowing who you are in Christ is about understanding what 2nd Corinthians 5:17 truly means when it says, "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new." Further, from beginning to end, this book gives the reader a clear distinction between components that comprise every human being, the physical and the spiritual. In order to understand who we truly are, it is of utmost importance to understand both sides that make us into one complete being. Before we become physical beings, we exist as spiritual beings. This book teaches us about our source of origin, the purpose of our existence and who we are supposed to be in Christ, as opposed to what we have accepted as the norm. Natasha Nanyangwe Chirwa-Lungu was born on the 19th of September, 1981 in Chililabombwe, Copperbelt Province, Zambia. She is a last born in a family of ten although she's lived most of her life in Lusaka, Zambia. She is married to Mwelwa Lungu and they have five children: one boy and four girls. She is a legal practitioner by profession, currently teaching as a lecturer at ZCAS University Lusaka. She is a born-again Christian affiliated with Eternal Life Assembly and Winners Chapel (Libala Lusaka) International. The author has always loved reading stories especially fairy tales. As she grew up, due to her love of stories, she quickly learnt how to read well because she couldn't wait to read the many story books for herself. Her first love is the story of Joseph in the Bible and to this day her favourite of all time. The author has always been a firm believer in God. She believes that just like laws are meant to be obeyed and offenders punished, the Bible is like a law book whose contents are meant to be followed and obeyed. Her faith was always unshakeable until she went through a serious crisis and started questioning her beliefs. She began to look for answers; she wanted to know how what the Bible says could come to fruition in her life. Her journey led her to write Knowing who you are in Christ as her first book. It was inspired by a teaching done by her Pastor Ben Andrews at Winners Chapel. All the questions she had been asking were answered as she wrote the book. "God through His Holy Spirit, took hold of my hand and wrote the book. I discovered that when you spend time with God in His word, He reveals more and more of Himself to you. Sometimes He will tell you something only to find that it is actually in the bible, in a scripture you have never read before," says the author. As a result of Knowing who you are in Christ so many new books have been born. To God be all the Glory and Honor.
